Wolfgang, 29 October 2005

"First, I want to say, that your script: "class upload" is great! Thanks for this hard work."

From Dr. Bill, 01 August 2005

"Again thanks for writing a great script and answering my questions."

From Oreamnos, 04 June 2005

"This script is so easy to use and powerful. Everytime I need to upload and resize images I always have to go searching for some script or use the old ones I slapped together. I think I have found the script I will always use in the future. There are things that I need to comment on but neither of them may be related to the script itself. 1.) When resizing gif's that have transparent parts the transparent parts seem to turn black after resizing. I imagine this is something about gif's and not about your script. [this depends on the GD version] 2.) I really wasn't able to use what I downloaded off of Hotscripts because my text editor does not like it when I copy and past code from the internet [it should work ;)]. Fortunately I found the .zip file. Also in that .zip file you have a working example which is so easy to use. Regardless, great script! Thanks"

From Taylor, 04 May 2005

"I will paypal you $25 as soon as I get a response. THANKS!!"

From Matthias, 26 April 2005

"Okay thanks, neverless as soon as i get some money into my paypal account i gotta donate a few bucks, I like the class really and it saved me a lot of write work (got to create multiple thumbs)"

From Steve, 21 Apr 2005

"Thank you! This worked. I'm so excited now. "

From Jason, 07 April 2005

"Also thank you so much for the help. It is much appreciated."

From Gaston 04 April 2005

"I downloaded your upload class and used it in an application. My compliments it is a good straitforward class which makes life with image upload and handling a lot easier."

From Knappy 27 March 2005

"I love your class.upload.php . It's just what I was looking for."

From Justin 18 March 2005

"Hey, I just checked up on your script again today. Looks like youve added some great stuff. Its great that youve got some good docs now :) Was a little light on the documentation earlier. Thanks for the credit on that bug find as well. Ill have to implement this new class soon. You should setup someway for people to get notified on updates to this script.. Well, its pretty near perfect now though.. Just want to say, best upload" class out there. Good job."
